

British Journal of Canadian Studies

Volume 2 (1987)

John R. Calvert Collective Bargaining in the Public Sector in Canada: Teething Troubles or Genuine Crisis?	1
Sheila C. Dow Banking and Regional Development in Canada	16
D.W. Gillingham, A. Hankinson and J.T. Zinger Forecasting Corporate Performance: A Canadian/UK Joint Project	41
Robin Howells Pélagie-la-Charette and the Carnavalesque	48
F.K. Donnelly The British Background of William Lyon Mackenzie	61
Ged Martin Britain and the Future of British North America 1841-1850	74
David MacKenzie Canada and the Civil Aviation Discussions during the 1937 Imperial Conference	97
H.S. Ferns Mackenzie King and Self-Government for India, 1942	110
Louis A. Delvoie Anglo-Canadian Relations in Historical Perspective	122
Daniel Drache The Strategy of Canadian Trade Liberalisation	195
L.G. Smith The Evolution of Public Participation in Canada: Implications for Participatory Practice	213
Briony Penn Access to Land for Recreation in British Columbia: A Historical Review with Present-Day Implications	236
Will Hamley Some Aspects and Consequences of the Development of the James Bay Hydro-Electric Complex	250
Barbara C. Murison Poverty, Philanthropy and Emigration to British North America: Changing Attitudes in Scotland in the Early Nineteenth Century	263
John Douglas Belshaw Two Christian Denominations and the Administration of Relief to Vancouver's Unemployed, 1929-1939	289
Robert L. McDougall The Literary Influence of Sir Walter Scott in Canada	304